

Children first

Protection of personal information

The Endowment Fund and the Paris Saint-Germain Foundation can collect personal information for the following purposes:

- To analyse your project with the aim of providing a response;
- To respond more generally to the requests for contact details in the application form;
- To collect data and information of operational frameworks;
- To keep you informed, with your agreement, of news and other projects supported by the Endowment Fund via our newsletter.

This information will be strictly confidential and will be used by the Endowment Fund and the Paris Saint-Germain Foundation or its collaborators, in respect of the laws concerning the protection of personal information.

We inform you that you have the right to access this information, request a correction or update of this information when it is erroneous or incomplete, and its deletion. You can request the portability of all information concerning you. You also reserve the right to oppose the use, or limit the use of your personal information. You can inform the Paris Saint-Germain Endowment Fund directives for the conservation, deletion or communication of your personal information in case of death and designate the responsible individual.

At any time, you can exercise your rights and contact the Protection of Personal Information Manager via email at dpo@psg.fr or by writing to the following address:

PARIS SAINT-GERMAIN
Délégué à la Protection des Données
53 avenue Emile Zola
92100 Boulogne-Billancourt
France

All requests must be accompanied by a photocopy of a piece of identity. A reply will be sent within a month of receiving the request.

The Paris Saint-Germain Foundation and Endowment Fund will do its best to answer all queries concerning its treatment of personal information. In line with current laws, you may, if you wish, make a claim to or contact the CNIL within the framework outlined on their website: <https://www.cnil.fr>.